

Draft Call Lined Up On Capitol Hill

Washington, July 27 (AP)—Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey announced today that 25-year-old men will be drafted first. Other age groups will be taken in order of their registration, he said.

Hershey made the announcement after a conference with members of the Senate and House Armed Services committees.

Hershey conferred for more than an hour with the members of the two committees.

Later he told newsmen that approximately 5,000,000 men will be processed in the first 6 months of the program, beginning with the 25-year-olds and working down through those in the 22 years age brackets.

Draft headquarters estimated last night that of the 578,000 non-veterans in the 23-to-25 group only about 40,000 or 50,000 are qualified for service. Since the army is expected to call for around 30,000 a month it appeared the bulk of inductees will come later from the younger groups.

Hershey is expected to meet with the House Armed Services committee before reaching a final decision this week on the draft procedure. Organization of state and local boards meanwhile was reported nearing completion. Registration of all those 18 through 25 will get under way August 30.

Farmers Don't Like Detroit Fast Time

Crop Harvest Handicapped By Working Hours

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—The state department of agriculture today asked Detroit to turn its clocks back an hour to Eastern Standard Time.

Director Charles Figg, in a letter to the city council, estimated Daylight Saving Time was costing 10 per cent of the food production on farms adjacent to fast time areas.

Council President George Edwards said the matter would be submitted for an advisory vote by the people next fall.

Detroit went on Daylight Savings Time last April and planned to continue it into September.

Figg said Michigan weather is such that most crops must be harvested late in the day. He added that farm laborers insist on the same working hours as their city neighbors. As a result, he said the farmer loses his labor at the time of day when he needs it most.

California Negroes Sue Railroads For $180,000 Damages

Los Angeles, July 27 (AP)—An anti-segregation suit for $180,000 damages was on file against two railroads today.

Nine California Negroes accused the Southern Pacific and the Texas and Pacific railroads of "wilful misconduct" in requiring them to leave reserved chair cars seats for another coach at El Paso.

They contended their tickets entitled them to the more comfortable accommodations from Los Angeles to Dallas. Each asks $10,000 actual damages for "loss of comfort, humiliation and discontent" and $10,000 punitive damages.

Beet Crop Short; Sugar May Go Up

Washington, July 27 (AP)—A shortage of beet sugar will send sugar prices soaring later this year, Rep. Crawford (R-Mich) predicted today.

He said the 1948 sugar beet crop, the smallest in 25 years, was "shot to pieces" because farmers have turned beet acreage over to grain and other crops that bring a higher price.

Young Progressives Plan March To Put Heat On Lawmakers

Philadelphia, July 27 (AP)—The newly organized young progressives of America approved a resolution calling for a march on Washington today as a prelude to a "mass pressure" movement on Congress by the Progressive party.

Rep. Leo Isaacson (AIP-N.Y.) told the teen-age group, also known as the "Youth For Wallace" yesterday, "we are going to join in a fight against adjournment of the special session of Congress before it has enacted the reforms it professes to support."

The New Yorker, told young delegates from 44 states and Puerto Rico, "as for myself and those few who represent us, we are going to propose the immediate repeal of the peace-time draft. There is no danger of war except for that danger fostered by the Fascists in our midst."

The youth group adjourned their founding convention yesterday without adopting a platform because they had been granted the use of convention hall without pay only until 5 p. m. (EST.)

After that deadline the hall would have cost them $1,140 an hour, or $12 an hour for each of the 95 maintenance employees.

In the last five minutes of the five-hour session, the young Progressives dropped their unadopted platform and resolutions into the lap of their national committee.

Army Discontinues UMT Test Training

Fort Knox, Ky., July 27 (AP)—This nation's first peacetime experiment in universal military training is being discontinued temporarily by the army.

The UMT unit is being discontinued, the army said, because its facilities and personnel are needed for training inductees under the new draft law. It added that the unit would resume operation about Nov. 1.

The unit started training its first group of teen-agers, enlistees in the regular army who volunteered for the experiment, in January, 1947. Since then, three training cycles of six months each have been held. About 650 men were trained in each period.

Steps are underway to adapt the unit's training methods for regular army outfits. Many of its procedures have been put into use in the Third Armored Training Division here, which will be studied by the conferees.

Post officials disclosed at least six UMT developments would become army-wide:

1. The religious program.
2. The training court, in which the men themselves judge and mete out punishment for minor infractions of regulations. A demerit system for infractions is included.

Shot Fells Youth At Chicago Eatery But He Wasn't Hit

Chicago, July 27 (AP)—A shot was fired and a youth staggered from a hamburger shop at 209 North Western avenue last night and fell face down on the sidewalk.

A police squad was summoned. Mrs. Helen Williams, 30, owner of the shop, told a detective Lyons Kellier the youth had broken a window and the shot at him after he threatened her.

Kellier ordered the youth to the Cook county jail hospital as he continued questioning Mrs. Williams.

A few minutes later Kellier learned the youth—identified as Roscoe Kelly, 22—had not been hit by a bullet at the hamburger shop. He had fainted.

Kelly was held on a charge of malicious mischief on Mrs. Williams' complaint.

Famous Old Cubs Shortstop Tinker Dies In Florida

Orlando, Fla., July 27 (AP)—Joe Tinker of the double-play, Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance baseball fame, died suddenly in a hospital today of respiratory trouble.

Today was the 68th birthday of the famous old Chicago Cub shortstop. Physicians only a few hours before had remarked how well he was. He died at 11:15 a. m. (EST.)

He was in a hospital here for a checkup on his diet and for treatment of a respiratory ailment.

Truman Dumps Civil Rights Program In Lap Of Congress

Huge Power Job Starts Soon At Soo

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—Awarding of construction contracts cleared the way today for beginning work on a multimillion dollar hydro-electric power plant at Sault Ste. Marie.

Col. A. Riani, district Army engineer here, announced the contracts yesterday and said construction would start before Sept. 1. The plant will be located on St. Mary's Canal and is scheduled for completion in 1951.

Main contracts included one for $3,564,704 to the Tuller Construction Co., of New Jersey, and another for $916,175 to the Dunbar and Sullivan Dredging Co., of Detroit.

President Demands Price Controls To Prevent Depression

Living Costs Top Item In New Legislation

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO
Washington, July 27 (AP)—President Truman today demanded limited price control and an excess profits tax to help check the rising cost of living and avert "another great depression."

A depression, he said, would scuttle "the world's hope for a lasting peace."

The president coupled a reiterated plea for power to hold wages in line with his price control recommendation. And he personally confronted the politically hostile 80th Congress with six other proposed brakes on spending—among them a return to credit restrictions and standby rationing authority.

Reds Want Collapse
"The Communists, both here and abroad, are counting on our present prosperity turning into a depression," the chief executive declared.

"They do not believe that we can—or will—put the brakes on high prices. They are counting on an economic collapse in this country."

That, he said, "would cut the ground from under the free nations of Europe."

Mr. Truman addressed a joint meeting of the Senate and House on the second day of the special session he called in the heat of a presidential campaign year.

But his language was far more restrained than it was on his western tour, or in his acceptance speech to the Democratic National convention. Then he referred repeatedly to the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as one of the worst in the nation's history.

Housing Bill Pushed
The president did not spell out the details of his price control program. He left that a question to be answered by an administration bill promised later this week—perhaps tomorrow.

But he did say the controls should be authorized for "scarce commodities which basically affect essential industrial production or the cost of living." That would mean things like steel and meat.

Forgotten Man Runs For President Too

Socialist Labor Ticket Appears In 28 States

Pittsburgh, July 27 (AP)—With all the fuss over the Republicans, Democrats, Dixiecrats and Wallace Third Party, Edward A. Teichert is just about the forgotten man of politics.

Teichert is running for president, too—on the Socialist Labor ticket.

That is, it's the Socialist Labor ticket everywhere except in the presidential candidate's home state of Pennsylvania. Here it will appear on the ballot as the Industrial Government Party because the better known Socialist Party of Norman Thomas got the ballot first.

Teichert, who, when he isn't running for president, works as an assistant foreman in a Greensburg, Pa., electric equipment plant, claims his party dates back to 1876.

The 44-year-old candidate also ran for president in 1944 and collected a total of 49,000 votes while appearing on the ballots in 16 states. This time, he hopes his party will appear on the ballots of 28 states.

The Socialist Labor Party advocates the elimination of capitalism, collective ownership of all industry and distribution systems, employe election of management, and a National Congress composed of industrial representatives rather than political delegates.

Communists Split Rome Labor Union

Rome, July 27 (AP)—Union leaders strove desperately today to hold together Italy's general federation of labor, as Communist members split with the Catholic and government party faction.

The 7,000,000-member confederation (CGIL) began coming apart at the seams last week after its Communist-dominated executive committee called a disastrous general strike following the attempted assassination of Communist leader Palmiro Togliatti.

The Communist majority in the CGIL executive committee have, in effect, told Christian Democrat and Catholic Labor (ACLI) leaders to "go ahead and form your own union."

Recruiter Sells Army, Lands House
Erie, Pa., July 27 (AP)—Master Sgt. Vincent Petroski, father of three children, needed a house.

The sergeant, who is recruiting for the army, started to "sell" Earl Easton, 23, on the army. Easton mentioned he had a five-room house. Petroski really poured on the steam.

Now Easton is in the army. And Petroski has his house.

Two Police Chiefs In Berlin; East And West Clash Again

BY EDWIN SHANKE
Berlin, July 27 (AP)—Blocked Berlin turned up with two police chiefs today, thus setting the stage for a new test of strength between East and West.

Chief Paul Markgraf, suspended by the anti-Communist city government for being "undemocratic, un-German and uncooperative," continued to receive the backing of the Russians, who appointed him originally.

His anti-Communist deputy, Dr. Johannes Stumm, directed by the city government to take over, was ordered dismissed by the Russian commander of Berlin, Maj. Gen. Alexander Kotikov. The dismissal was a one-power act, however, and the city is run by four powers.

This new issue came to a head just as the United States and Britain began retaliatory action for the Soviet land blockade of Berlin.

The two Western allies, because of "technical difficulties," banned all railway traffic between their zones and the Soviet zone.

The phrase—"technical difficulties"—was the same one used by the Russians in establishing their blockade. British and American newsmen conceded that it really meant "economic sanctions."

The rail ban means not only stoppage of traffic between the various zones of Germany but of traffic from the Russian zone through the Western zones to other countries. Just how much tonnage is affected is not known.

The Western air lift, flying food and supplies in to Berlin to beat the Russian land block, continued apace. The Americans rounded out their first month of the flying freight service yesterday with 236 flights carrying 1,629 tons of food.

At the same time there were two other developments in the German situation:

1. In Frankfurt, the military governors of the French, British and American zones reached final agreement with German political leaders for establishment of a unified government in Western Germany. The plans call for election of a constituent assembly by Sept. 1, with the government—for 45,000,000 Germans—to be running by late this year or early next.

2. In London, top-flight diplomats of the United States, Britain and France conferred in an effort to find some means of ending the problem of Berlin and of getting a start on settling other Western-Russian differences over Germany.

New French Cabinet Has No Communists
Georges Bidault Dropped As Foreign Minister

BY ROBERT C. WILSON
Paris, July 27 (AP)—Premier Andre Marie formed a new French Coalition cabinet and today presented its members to President Vincent Auriol.

Like its predecessor, the new cabinet contains no Communists. It is made up of members of parties who favor the cause of the western allies.

The new government contained one major change from the eight cabinets France has had in the past three years. Georges Bidault has been dropped as foreign minister.

Bidault, who has represented France in all major international conferences since 1945, has been replaced by 62-year-old Robert Schuman, the outgoing premier, whose cabinet resigned July 19 and precipitated the crisis.

Schuman is a popular Republican (MRP), a party colleague of Bidault. Thus no major change in French foreign policy is foreseen.

Marie's announcement came late last night after more than 36 hours of negotiations with the Socialist party. At one point he almost resigned his premiership.

Marie is a radical Socialist. The party name is in a sense a misnomer. The party is neither radical nor Socialist—in the accepted sense. It is a moderate Centrist party.

This fact led Marie to choose as finance minister Paul Reynaud, pre-war premier and a moderate. Designation of Reynaud has worried the Socialists, who fear he will pursue a capitalistic line.

Flint Gets Manager, Loses City Attorney

Flint, Mich., July 27 (AP)—Flint gained a city manager Monday night but lost a city attorney.

Frank R. Buechner of Hamilton, O., was confirmed as city manager replacing Mayor Edward J. Vial, acting manager. Five commissioners voted for Buechner, three refrained from voting and one was absent.

Walter G. Krapohl, city attorney since 1940, resigned the post effective Sept. 1. He said he wanted to devote more time to his private practice. Krapohl added that the appointment of the new manager removed any reason for deferring his resignation.

Dead Buggy Worth $250 A Month To His Two Daughters
Los Angeles, July 27 (AP)—In life, Benjamin (Bugsy) Siegel, slain racketeer, may or may not have been much of a family man, but in death he's going to take care of his two young daughters.

Thirteen months ago Bugsy was gunned to death as he sat with a pal on a sofa in the home of a friend, Virginia Hill. Beverly Hills party-giver and intimate of many Hollywood notables.

The courts yesterday granted his daughters, Millicent 17, and Barbara, 15, of New York, $250 a month from Bugsy's estate. They live with Siegel's divorced wife, Estelle.

Southern Democrats Aroused For Battle On Racial Measures

Dixie Group Promises Last-Ditch Stand

Washington, July 27 (AP)—President Truman tossed his full civil rights program back to Congress today without singling out the racial measures against which southern Democrats have pledged a "no surrender" fight.

In a sternly worded message to assembled House and Senate members, the chief executive said enactment of the program he first outlined last February "is necessary to carry out our American ideals of liberty and justice for all."

Senate Foes United
The White House, in advance of Mr. Truman's personal address, had listed anti-lynch and anti-poll tax bills as among those he would plug for because hearings on them have been completed.

And if his irate Dixie foes needed any fresh spur to anger, the president supplied it last night by ordering an "FEPC" for federal workers and an anti-discrimination drive in the armed forces.

The two executive orders were announced by the White House shortly after 19 senators from 11 southern states banded together for a last-ditch stand against the Truman program.

"We will never surrender," Senator Russell (D-Ga.) said. The veteran Georgia lawmaker who spoke for the group had been the choice of the Dixie rebels for president at the recent Democratic convention.

As for Mr. Truman's twin orders, Russell termed them an "unconstitutional surrender" to the Henry A. Wallace Progressive convention and to the threatened civil disobedience campaign against the draft by some Negro leaders.

Lions Stage Noisy Parade In New York As 300,000 Watch

New York, July 27 (AP)—After a noisy and colorful parade in which 15,000 persons marched down Fifth avenue, the 31st annual convention of Lions International takes a more serious turn today.

Five thousand delegates from all the states and 23 foreign countries and thousands of guests will hear Lieut. Gen. George E. Stratemeyer speak on "Your United States Air Force" at Madison Square Garden.

The three-hour parade last night was witnessed by an estimated 300,000 persons. There were many bands, and a variety of costumes.

Prizes were given for bands, drum and bugle corps, floats and uniformed groups.

Alabama marchers gave the Rebel yell. Arkansas' bathing girls looked well attired for the warm weather. The California-Nevada district offered the old and the new-Spanish caballeros and ranchers.

Russians Reported Massing Forces On Yugoslav Frontier
Istanbul, Turkey, July 27 (AP)—Heavy Soviet military forces have been concentrated along Yugoslavia's frontier with Romania.

The papers, Cunevurvet and La Republique, quoted travellers as saying 22 Russian air divisions now are concentrated in Romania.

These divisions, the papers added, are divided into two groups, one of which is poised toward Yugoslavia, the other southward toward the Mediterranean. Bombers were reported to be carrying out exercises nightly.

The papers said other forces are being moved into Bulgaria.

Five Britons Held As Spies In Israel

Tel Aviv, Israel, July 27 (AP)—An Israeli police prosecutor filed general charges of espionage and security violation today against five Britons arrested six weeks ago in a Jerusalem spy hunt.

Magistrate Eliezer Malchi told the prosecutor he would hold the five men 15 days on the allegations but would release them Aug. 10 unless more specific charges are filed.

One of the five, Thomas Downes, was released in bail of a thousand pounds on condition he stay in his father-in-law's house in Natanya. The others, all officials of the Jerusalem Electric Corporation, are Michael Brvant, Frederick Sylvester, William Hawkins and Alfred Leech.

Ammunition Blast Kills 10 In Milan

Milan, Italy, July 27 (AP)—A Milan newspaper said today 10 persons were killed and three injured in the explosion of an Italian military ammunition dump yesterday. It was the second such tragedy in three days.

The paper said a series of blasts yesterday levelled a barracks near Bolzano, about 40 miles from the Austrian border. An estimated 40 tons of TNT were stored in the building.

Black Sees Sigler Plot To Fire Him

Port Huron, Mich., July 27 (AP)—Bitter words over records of the Flint auto rackets grand jury today widened the breach between Attorney General Eugene F. Black and Michigan's Republican administration.

Circuit Judge Philip Elliott of Flint, who conducted the recently completed probe, brought on the latest flare-up yesterday when he asked that Black take immediate steps to bring about the disposal of dealers' records seized by the one-man grand jury.

The attorney general immediately described the action as part of what he called a plot to get him out of office.

Judge Elliott said he had no such thought in mind and simply wanted to get the books back to dealers who need them in their business.

In Lansing, Governor Sigler repeated that he was "too busy to keep track of the gyrations of Mr. Black."

"I haven't seen or talked with Judge Elliott for several years," the governor said.

Black called the move "a rather clumsy Sigler-General Motors effort to * * * get all the documentary grand jury evidence back into safe hands and * * * provide Sigler with a technical act of misfeasance which he may assign as grounds for my removal from office."

Murder On Highway Ruled Travel Risk

Widow Gets Compensation In Holland Killing

Trenton, N. J., July 27 (AP)—The murder of a traveling salesman at the hands of a hitch-hiker was written up today by the state supreme court as one of the risks of travel.

It announced that conclusion in awarding workmen's compensation to the widow of the slain man, Roy Gordon Beh, formerly of Newark. Beh was murdered Dec. 20, 1945, in Holland, Michigan.

Noting that Beh had not been forbidden by his employer to pick up hitch-hikers, Justice Joseph L. Bodine said:

"We find that the death arose from a risk incidental to his employment and was casually connected therewith because it arose from a risk or hazard incident to the use of the highway."

"The employee, if he had not stopped for the hitch-hiker, might have been shot anyway. That is one of the risks of travel."

The decision overruled Deputy Commissioner John A. Wagner of the state workmen's compensation bureau. Beh's widow, Mrs. Jane Beh, mother of two small children, had appealed the compensation bureau's denial of her claim.

Beh was shot to death while working as a $550-a-month traveling representative of the Breeze Corp., of Newark. Robert R. Smith, to whom he offered a ride, later confessed the shooting and is serving a life term in Michigan.

Schools Receive $100,000 Advance In Primary Money

The Escanaba city schools have received an advance of $100,000 in primary school money from the state to tide them over the "lean" period before school funds are received next fall.

Supt. John A. Lemmer said primary money advance payments have been applied for and received each summer for several years. The advance is deducted from the total primary money the schools will receive in the year ahead and is not an additional amount.

The first written use of the expression, "hair of the dog," is believed to be contained in an English translation of a French book published in 1616, when "haire of the beast that hath made thee ill" is prescribed as a cure for "the head that complaineth itself of too much drinke of wine."

WLS WILL PLAY AT STATE FAIR

Lulu Belle And Scotty Will Return

Lulu Belle and Scotty, America's sweethearts of the air, and the most popular performers of the WLS National Barn Dance, Chicago, will be featured on the WLS program Saturday, Aug. 21, at the Upper Peninsula State Fair, it has been announced by Harold P. Lindsay, Secretary-Manager.

The U. P. State Fair will open at Escanaba Tuesday, Aug. 17 and will continue through Sunday, Aug. 22.

Lulu Belle and Scotty have been favorites with radio audiences and theater-goers ever since they came up from the mountains of North Carolina 10 years ago to join the WLS troupe.

Lulu Belle's rise to radio popularity was due to the home-like songs she sings and her wholesome comedy. A refreshing type, she is spontaneous in her wit. Her real name before her marriage to Scotty Wiseman, the Scotty of the noted musical duo, was Myrtle Cooper. She was given the name of Lulu Belle when she appeared on her first Barn Dance program.

Scotty played the guitar and harmonica for square dances in Carolina before he joined WLS Barn Dancers. He entered radio at station WMNN, singing mountain ballads and helping in programming. His success with WLS was immediate.

Scotty is a handsome chap with admirable restraint, which makes him an ideal foil for his irrepressible partner, Lulu Belle.

The WLS troupe will give performances both afternoon and evening at the U. P. State Fair on Saturday, Aug. 21. The afternoon performance will be co-starred with the world's heavyweight horse pulling championships.

Jail Father In Assault On Son

Nick Pinar, 56, of 13 Riverside Road, Wells, today is held in jail for investigation and his son, Mike Pinar, 20, is receiving hospital treatment for a head wound that sheriff's officers said was caused when the father struck his son with a light iron bar.

Deputy Sheriff Clarence Johnson said the assault occurred in the yard of the Pinar home at 4:30 o'clock this morning and was witnessed by Mrs. Pinar. Officers said they would ask a sanity examination for Pinar.

The father's assault upon his son to the officers as caused by the son's determination to leave home today and take a job in Chicago.

The youth's scalp was gashed badly just above the neck and at the hospital x-ray examination was being made to determine whether there was a skull fracture. Officers said the young man was struck by a two-foot-long piece of scrap iron.

Before the officers arrived the elder Pinar ran into the woods. Deputy Johnson took the injured youth to a doctor. Meanwhile the elder Pinar had returned and had taken a taxi to the sheriff's office, where he gave himself up.

Super-Cushions give you a remarkable new ease in car handling. Your car hugs the road, seems to float through traffic, to flow around curves.

Super-Cushions soak up crosswise jolts, soak up vibration. Results: less driving fatigue, less wear and tear on your car.

Super-Cushions consistently average more mileage than the best standard tires. More—they make small cars ride like big ones... make big cars ride better.

Super-Cushions run cooler; and because they're softer they "roll with the punch", are harder to cut, bruise or blow out. Arrange now for a Super-Cushion test run on your car.

MILLIONS OF SUPER-CUSHIONS ARE NOW IN USE ON NEW AND OLDER CARS

JEEP GETTING TOO STYLISH

Ruark Recalls Vehicle In North Africa

BY ROBERT C. RUARK
New York—You remember how it was when you went away and then you came home and there she was. The lanky legs had gone, and so had the freckles, and so had the freckles, and the stringy hair and the ticklish temper. There she was with a slick hairdo and no shine on the nose and a new dancing dress, all gussied up with paint and powder and spangles and such. But you felt uncomfortable. Just couldn't get adjusted to the change.

I have been up to visit an old tomboy turned lady, in her showrooms at the Waldorf. A daughter of Willis-Overland, known to a few billion Americans, Arabs, Cannibals, Germans, Englishmen, Australians, Chinese, Japs, and other assorted citizens as a "Jeep".

My word, my word, my word. "Jeep" walk about too much. Why shucks, you say, a jeep is a cutdown conveyance with a gas-sy breath and a yowl like a tortured tomat and four-wheel brakes and a cantankerous temper. You still wear your kidneys up under your armpits as a result of three years of wartime travel on her stonehard seats—with your rear-end always about two feet off the so-called cushion.

This Is A Lady
This new critter, with the satin skirt and the storebought complexion, this is strictly no jeep. This is a lady. You walk into the showroom, and there she is, lean and elegant and shiny yellow, with chrome spattered all over her chassis. There she is, all duded up with whitewall tires, luxurious with leather, sumptuous with springs, and costing a slight $2,002.03, delivered in New York.

Jeep? Hell, Mac, this ain't no jeep. This here is a society broad. Here we got a bright, yaller roadster with a rumble seat and silver steps and fog lights. Got four professional models—powers girls, probably—sitting in it for extra decoration. They're modeling sports clothes. All they need to finish the picture is a college boy in a raccoon coat waving a silver hip flask.

I remember some women in jeeps, but they weren't models and they weren't wearing sports clothes. These dames were nurses and none of them had been out of their GI pants and socks for about six weeks. They hadn't seen a lipstick in a month, or worn a skirt in six. It was rainy and cold in North Africa, then, and as the jeep plowed along through the mud it churned up a sheet of filthy spray. Those are the kind of dames I remember in jeeps. Professional models got no business in jeeps.

Like A Woman Someways
Now they have a new jeep station wagon that's pretty as a Packard. They have jeep sedans, now, with pastel complexions. They all got springs. Springs, yet. You hit a bump and the car don't leap. You know about how a jeep can jump, Mac?

It used to rain a lot on those coral roads on some of them romantic tropical islands. Jeep's like a woman in a lot of ways. You got to know how to handle her, especially if you've got her out in the middle of the night in one of those horizontal rainstorms.

One time I see a jeep get mad, account of being hauled out into the mess, and pretty soon she shies at a curve or a piece of paper, or something, and the meat-head kid at the wheel, he don't gentle her down any. He kicks on the brakes and she bucks like an antelope with a hotfoot, and off goes a perfectly good hero into the palm trees, playing three-cushion caroms with his anatomy. Jeeps, chrome fittings and cushions? Did you ever see a jeep with a mashoon gun glued onto it? Did you ever see one with a carbine scabbard secured to her flank, like a cowboy carries his Winchester on his horse? Didja ever see how fast four guys could leave a jeep if a plane with a black cross on it heaved over a hill? Ever see a dead man in a jeep?

Yeah, I remember jeeps, all right. Now they got jeep sedans and station wagons and names like jeepsters and fancy doodads, but, it ain't the girl I remember. There wasn't no frills on that baby, but there wasn't nothing she couldn't climb, cross or jump over, and sometimes she looked right pretty, the way she was.

Woodsmen Have Own Ways Of Making Bears Behave

By EDWARD H. MATTSON

Newberry, Mich. — "Pat" Furlong, supervisor of the Newberry district of the Department of Conservation, had to think fast a few years ago, when a very large black bear refused to turn and run in the customary bear manner.

Instead the bear turned on Pat with intentions that weren't honorable. Today after several years of thinking the incident over, and discussing it with other woodsmen, Mr. Furlong is very much convinced it was one of the closest calls he has had in a lifetime in and near the woods. State Naturalists accept the adventure as one of the few authentic records of bear attacking humans in Michigan.

Mr. Furlong was looking up some roads in an old logging slash when he encountered the beast in an old camp clearing. The bear was busy nosing around the clearing and permitted Mr. Furlong to approach within a few rods. Pat thought it was "something" to get that close to a bear in the wild. One of those curious and amusing sights which always interests a natural woodsman. Something out of the ordinary routine.

"At this point," Mr. Furlong says, "I wasn't concerned about my safety. It was I who was doing the stalking. Having had much experience with bear, I expected the bear to run at any moment."

Bear Started For Pat

But the bear didn't run. It started towards Pat. Step by step.

And then he found two pieces of boards. He started pounding the boards together. That had a marked effect. The bear retreated. Pat followed up his turn in the contest by chasing the bear, yelling and pounding the boards together. The bear disappeared into the woods.

"Well, that's that," Pat thought. He threw the boards away and started across the clearing. He didn't get far when he heard the bear again behind him. The bear was right behind. Again Pat started throwing things and wished he had the noise making boards. The contest was getting very hot, when Mr. Furlong found an old dish pan. That was just the thing for a big noise. The bear retreated again with Pat right behind him. This time Pat beat the pan for some time after the bear got out of sight. Going across the clearing he stopped to beat the pan to make sure. He didn't throw the noise maker away this time. He managed to reach his car, about a mile away, the winner of a very strange contest. The next day, he and "Dick" Beach, Conservation Officer, returned to the scene with a couple of real noise-makers, to check over the contest field. The bear didn't show up to test that brand of noise. Dick Beach says, that it must have been some show, and from the tracks it sure was a big brute of a bear.

There are many other stories of woodsmen and berry-pickers scaring off bear by pounding trees or pails. It seems that one thing which bears do not like is noise.

Years ago, there was an old bear trapper in the Copper Country who killed his trapped bear with a hunting axe. He carried a stick about the size of a walking cane in the woods. He used to say, "While I'm not going hunting bear with this stick, I'll not be afraid of any bear as long as I have the stick. One sharp rap on the nose will make a bear behave."

I'll take a dishpan.

was right behind. Again Pat started throwing things and wished he had the noise making boards. The contest was getting very hot, when Mr. Furlong found an old dish pan. That was just the thing for a big noise. The bear retreated again with Pat right behind him. This time Pat beat the pan for some time after the bear got out of sight. Going across the clearing he stopped to beat the pan to make sure. He didn't throw the noise maker away this time. He managed to reach his car, about a mile away, the winner of a very strange contest. The next day, he and "Dick" Beach, Conservation Officer, returned to the scene with a couple of real noise-makers, to check over the contest field. The bear didn't show up to test that brand of noise. Dick Beach says, that it must have been some show, and from the tracks it sure was a big brute of a bear.

There are many other stories of woodsmen and berry-pickers scaring off bear by pounding trees or pails. It seems that one thing which bears do not like is noise.

Years ago, there was an old bear trapper in the Copper Country who killed his trapped bear with a hunting axe. He carried a stick about the size of a walking cane in the woods. He used to say, "While I'm not going hunting bear with this stick, I'll not be afraid of any bear as long as I have the stick. One sharp rap on the nose will make a bear behave."

I'll take a dishpan.

And then he found two pieces of boards. He started pounding the boards together. That had a marked effect. The bear retreated. Pat followed up his turn in the contest by chasing the bear, yelling and pounding the boards together. The bear disappeared into the woods.

"Well, that's that," Pat thought. He threw the boards away and started across the clearing. He didn't get far when he heard the bear again behind him. The bear

Reds Assail Water Fronts And Ship Workers In Sabotage War

Communists Attempting To Curb Aid To Europe

(Sixth of a series revealing, for the first time, the full extent of Communism in the U. S., and the strategy for domination of North America)

By DON CAMERON

(Special to the Escanaba Daily Press)

How could Communists in labor unions sabotage America?

The United States stands forth as Public Enemy Number One in the eyes of the Communist-ruled one-fourth of the world, and Target Number One in the Red revolutionary offensive. The United States has in hand at present the biggest job, by far, that any nation ever has tackled—that of preventing the farther spread of Communism in Europe and Asia. To this end billions of American dollars are pledged, millions of tons of American food and goods are going abroad, and American military strength is being augmented on a scale hitherto unknown in time of peace.

"Our policy," Secretary of State Marshall has said, "is directed not against any country or doctrine, but against hunger, poverty, desperation and chaos."

Translated into plain talk, that means our policy is aimed directly against Soviet Russia and Kremlin-controlled Communists around the globe, to whom hunger, poverty, desperation and chaos are the Four Horsemen who alone can lay waste the capitalist world and usher in the era of Red totalitarianism.

ERP Dividing Line

Support of the ERP marks the dividing line, as clean as the slash of a razor, which has split American unions from Hudson's Bay to the Mexican border into militant right-and-left-wing camps. South of the border there is little division; organized labor in Latin America is so thoroughly saturated with the Communist ideology that the right wing hardly counts.

A shipping strike that would tie up American vessels and close American ports would be the quickest way to sabotage the ERP, or at least make it ineffectual for the duration of the strike. There is talk of such a strike, and more than talk, in the National Maritime Union. It is no secret that Communists in the union are eager for it.

NMU President Joseph Curran, after many years as a party-line follower, has repudiated the Reds and is fighting them. Nevertheless the Communists who oppose him have greater voting power than his supporters, and the NMU remains definitely on the Red side of the ledger.

It maintains an active Communist cell aboard every American ship. Confidential messages and documents are smuggled by party members from port to port around the world. Through the Committee for Maritime Unity, created by Communist Chairman William Z. Foster, the NMU is the strongest link in a chain of international maritime unions most of which are run by Reds.

Water Front Threat

In such a strike the seamen would have the whole-hearted support of many other unions, including Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's & Warehousemen's Union, which has enormous power up and down the Pacific Coast and in Hawaii. Besides longshoremen, it controls many warehousemen, the sugar workers on the Hawaiian plantations and smaller groups in the Middle West.

Bridges, an Australian who has successfully fought several attempts to deport him, is the West Coast's leading Communist. As chairman of the Committee for Maritime Unity he has worked hard to increase Communist control of maritime unions throughout the world. In recent years he has called three major strikes, all of which were in accord with the foreign policy of the Soviet Union.

Since shipping is the only substantial tie that binds nations together, for peace or war, it is pertinent to note here the strategic position of another union that, though small, is potentially dangerous because many of its members are wireless operators aboard ships. This is the American Communications Association, which belongs definitely in the Communist lineup. Early in the war, when Hitler and Stalin still were virtual partners, ACA officials were active in the American Peace Mobilization and other sabotage fronts.

So much for the waterfronts and the high seas. There are other inland threats to American safety, no less serious.

"Most Dangerous Union"

United Public Workers, which has been called the most dangerous union in the United States, was formed by a merger two years ago of the United Federal Workers and the State, County & Municipal Workers (CIO). Its officers, headed by Abram Flaxer, follow the Communist party line with devotion. Latest available information showed that its largest local, claiming 17,000 members, was in the Panama Canal Zone.

The War Department is on record as stating it has proof that members of the UPW have imperiled national security.

United Office & Professional Workers of America, which in 1946 absorbed the Federation of Architects, Engineers, Chemists & Technicians, has been accused in Congress of carrying on espionage for the Soviet Union. Just now its locals in some cities are engaged in bitter fights against leaders who have made it a fifth column in American business.

The Transport Workers Union is bossed by Michael J. Quill, New York City councilman, who denies that he is a member of the Communist Party but has not been able to conceal his party-line bias. Neither has Quill been able to refute convincingly assertions that he had to join the party in order to get his job from Communist John Santo, who organized the union and appointed its original officers.

TWU strength lies mostly in the East, but it has scattered locals in the Middle West and is trying hard to gain ground. Its membership includes a number of airline mechanics.

Strategic Disposition

These unions, while not large in comparison with the huge industrial organizations, are dangerous because of their strategic character and their obvious domination by men who serve the Kremlin, usually because they crave personal power, but occasionally because they believe sincerely in the creed of Communism.

This is not to suggest that confusion and strife even more widespread cannot be caused by organized minorities of Reds in other unions which officially are non-Red. The picture given here, while accurate, is necessarily sketchy and incomplete, its purpose being to indicate and suggest rather than specify in full detail. A thorough analysis of the situation would require the wordage of a very large book, and even then it is doubtful whether the most judicious investigator could say exactly how much damage Communists in United States labor could do if put to the test.

Certainly their power for harm is tremendous, as hundreds of competent observers have attested. Conceivably, given the opportune circumstances, it could be fatal to our way of life.

Moreover, United States Communists have impressive allies beyond our northern and southern borders. In Canada, which would be either the battlefield or the No Man's Land of a war with Russia, Communist strength is proportionately four times as great as in the United States.

Six big unions of the Canadian Congress of Labor (CIO) and seven of the Trades and Labor Congress (AFL), comprising nearly 1,800,000 of the congresses' total membership of around 3,000,000 are under the complete domination of militant pro-Communist factions. About as many more are shifting and uncertain.

Difficulties Of Canada

"We'll have much more trouble with our Reds than you people in the States with yours if there's a war," a Canadian cabinet member told me in Ottawa.

He needn't have told me, but it was gratifying to hear my own opinion, based on personal observation, confirmed officially.

Dionisio Encina's Mexican Communist Party, which in the beginning was financed by Moscow via New York, claims only 25,000 members, but Communist influence goes far beyond that. Oddly enough, the Kremlin's most valuable man in Mexico is not a Communist.

He is Vicente Lombardo Toledano, who in 1936 became head of the Mexican Confederation of Labor. Two years later, at a meeting of 13 Latin American trade unions, he was elected president of the powerful Latin American Labor Confederation. In 1946 he visited Moscow and was made vice-chairman of the World Federation of Trade Unions, which Green of the AFL termed "a new Red labor union international."

Party Line

Under Lombardo Toledano the Mexican Confederation and generous slice of Latin American labor outside Mexico have followed the Communist party line without deviation. Moscow newspapers have lauded his stand against foreign monopolies. Notwithstanding this, he has kept clear of the party label, declaring that "it would be impossible to have a strong labor movement if labor were affiliated with the Communist Party, or were open only to Communists."

Red agitators and organizers are prominent in all Latin American unions, and throughout the southern part of the hemisphere

Cooks

Birth

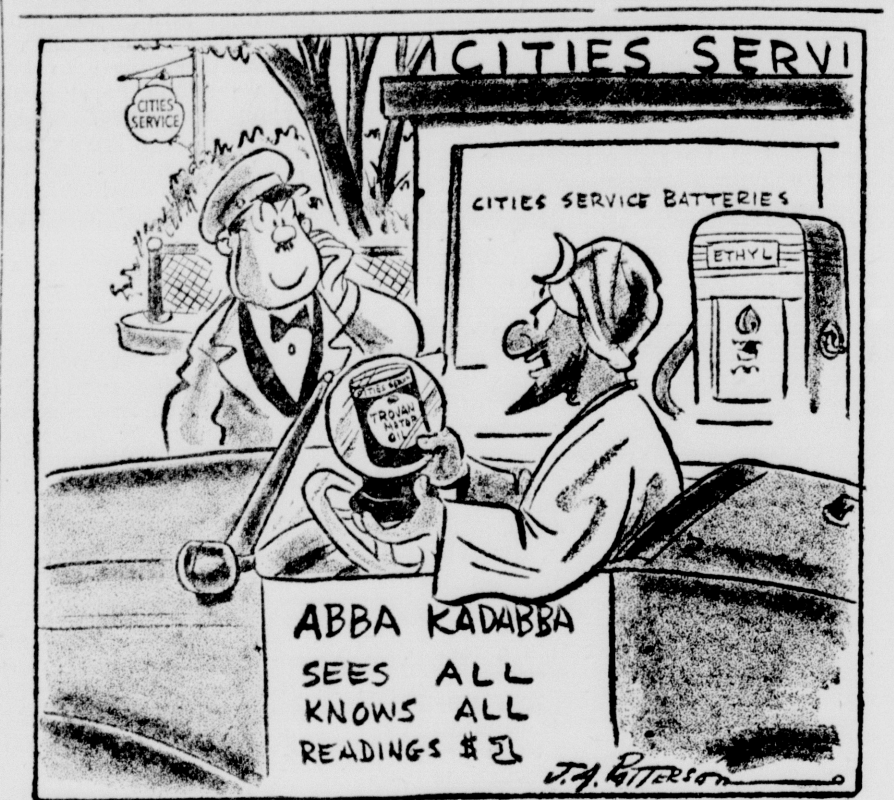

Cooks, Mich.—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Schnurer of Eckerman are the parents of a girl born at the Shaw hospital Sunday, July 18th. Mrs. Schnurer is the former Eleanor Gray.

Communists are stirring up trouble wherever possible — as witness the bloody and destructive Bogota, Columbia, uprising that interrupted the ninth International Conference of American States in April.

Communism south of the United States has allied itself with popular "anti-Yanqui" factions, extending its influence considerably since the war's end. In the event of another war between the western democracies and Russia, Stalin will have good friends in strong positions down there.

Betty Leiper, Joyce Sundquist, Joan Jensen, Barbara Jensen, Kathleen Kasische, Steve and Dave Mason, Ed Dempsey, Carol Beggs, Nancy Duchaine, Joan LeCrosse, Paul and Alan Davidson, Nancy Farrell and Joan Gaynor have returned from a week's session of Bible camp spent at Presbytery Point on Lake Michigan.

The red-sailed Ah-Mie, skippered by Lois Sawyer and Bill Nolden, took first place in the seagull races Saturday to retain the Bissell trophy. Jim Moran's boat, with Jim and Dean Shipman as crew, came in third. Jim calls his boat "Ga-Goo," a name which he tagged on his grandmother, Mrs. Albert Ellsworth, when he was a youngster.

Billie Ann Daniels is at last the legal possessor of the same initials as yours truly. Billie's birth certificate went in 18 years ago as "Un-named" Daniels, when there was a little trouble over deciding on a name for her. On her 18th birthday the matter was finally cleared up and the red headed gal we've all called "Billie Ann" for years is now the rightful owner of this title.

Attending the University of Michigan in the fall from Esby high will be, of course, the three scholarship winners, Marion Birkemeyer, Eunice Holmes, and Jack Edick. Merle Nelson, who finished the school year early to go to Alaska as a prospective lumberman, has returned from the wilds and will also be a Michigan student.

World Premiere
Of "Magdalena"
Wins Ovation

Los Angeles, July 27 (AP) — An enthusiastic audience last night cheered the world premiere of "Magdalena," a South American flavored light opera which looks destined for a long stay on Broadway.

The Los Angeles Civic Light Opera association lavished an estimated $300,000 on the show and it appears to be a worthwhile investment. The premiere at the Philharmonic saw some skittish scenery and one or two slow spots, but it is largely a handsome, intriguing production.

"Magdalena's" greatest asset is a superlative score created by Heitor Villa-Lobos distinguished Brazilian composer. The first night crowd was sometimes dazed, but usually enchanted by the pulsating rhythms and contrapuntal melodies.

Also on the credit side is an original plot of the conflict of paganism and christianity in Colombian jungles. It is ably performed by Irra Petina, John Raitt and Dorothy Sarnoff, rare performers in light opera because they can act as well as sing. Hugo Haas adds drama as the emerald king.

After three-week stands here and in San Francisco, "Magdalena" will brave New York, opening on Sept. 20. Despite last night's ovation, the light opera group is keeping its fingers crossed until the Broadway debut. It

CITY COUNCIL HAS MEETING

Request Police Enforce
Traffic Laws

The Manistique city council, in regular meeting last night, requested the acting city manager, Alex Robertson, to inform Chief of Police Roy Anderson that traffic laws are flagrantly being violated in the city of Manistique, and that appropriate action must be taken.

According to reports presented by Mayor Walter Burns and the city manager speeding is the chief offense, with unnecessary noise taking a close second. Other councilmen present corroborated the reports of the mayor and the city manager and were favorable toward suitable action to enforce the laws.

At the opening of the meeting Monday night the council heard the minutes from the meetings of June 28, July 14 and July 19, as read by Alex Robertson.

Call For Bids

A resolution adopted by the city of Ironwood proposing that members of the Municipal league uphold a proposed repeal of the sales tax diversion amendment was read, and tabled for further consideration.

The council also considered a request from a telegraph company to erect two signs at either entrance to the city of Manistique to direct tourists and other strangers to the telegraph office.

At the council meeting the acting city manager was instructed to call for bids on paint needed and painting of the Manistique city hall; to call for bids on a new typewriter and allowance for trade-in; and instructed the city manager to get cost estimates on providing city water for the Coast Guard station in the city limits.

Hear Petition

A motion presented by Otto Schubring, that the city of Manistique purchase a three-yard dump box, was passed by the council, after detailed discussion. The box will cost $755.

The council heard a petition presented by Eugene McNally and co-signed by Walter Linderoth and S. W. Farley for improvement of Wolf street. The council was favorable to the request, and advised that the matter will be attended to, if the present street budget permits.

Orson Livermore, street commissioner, was present at the council meeting and with the council discussed plans for a cold storage building for city property not in use, such as winter plows, etc.

Hear City Employee

A special petition by Ed Clemente, who was injured on June 3rd while working for the city was heard by the council, which agreed to take action, within limits, on the financial problems of the city employee. G. S. Johnson, city attorney, advised the council that the Workmen's Compensation commission and the Labor department will have to be consulted before definite action can be taken.

After a discussion of arrangements and refunds from the State Planning commission through the planning services of the Francis Engineering company, the meeting was adjourned, on motion of Councilman Berger.

Floyd Archey has returned to New York after visiting in Manistique three weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Archey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heric left this morning for Chicago where they will spend a few days visiting.

County Agent Urges
Use Of Poison To Kill Grasshoppers

Farmers and other persons interested or bothered are urged by the county agent, Clayton Reed, to call for grasshopper poison to combat the insects.

"Now that the hay is gone," he said, "the grasshoppers are a hazard to grain crops. And they will not be rid of them until late this year, for they are coldblooded."

The grasshoppers are much worse this year than they have been since the 1930's.

The poison is distributed free of charge at the county agent's office in the Manistique post office and at Cooks. The bait is mixed with water and sawdust before using.

Seven candidates for the title of National Blueberry Queen were chosen, from a total of 23 entries, by a vote of members of the Rotary club Monday noon.

Fifteen of the candidates attended the Rotary luncheon, where they were introduced by Helen McLaughlin, chairman of the queen committee for the 1948 Blueberry Festival to be held July 30, 31 and August 1.

Tiges Hope to End Bosox Win Streak

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—If history repeats, the Detroit Tigers should be able to snap Boston's 12-game victory streak here tonight.

Just a year ago, the pennant-bound New York Yankees came to town after winning games in a row and tying an American league record. It was the longest string of wins of the summer for the Yanks.

But they couldn't carry it to Briggs stadium. Freddie Hutchinson stepped out on the mound in a twilight game on that occasion and stopped the New Yorkers cold with just two hits.

Tonight Hal Newhouser gets the call to administer similar treatment to the Boston club.

Sawyer, New Phil Head, Says 'Let 'Em Enjoy Themselves'

Philadelphia, July 27 (AP)—Eddie Sawyer, whose success in handling young ball players is legend in these parts, took over the reins of the Philadelphia Phillies today determined to "let the kids play their own game and enjoy themselves."

Sawyer, who is only 37 himself, said that "if they don't enjoy the game they're not worth a dime."

The club announced yesterday that Sawyer was being elevated from the manager's post at Toronto of the Class Triple-A International League to fill the managerial shoes of the Phils.

MUSIAL STILL TOPS

New York, July 27 (AP)—Stan (The Man) Musial, brilliant outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals, continues to pace National league hitters by a commanding margin in the circuit's individual batting derby. Including games of Sunday, the Cardinal star clipped opposition pitching at a .386 gait, 40 points higher than runnerup Andy Pafko of the Chicago Cubs.

Stan Musial, on his first eastern trip this season, hit .571. On his second tour of the east he batted .462.

RED SOX' PUNCH—While ailing Ted Williams rode the bench, the big bat of Vern Stephens pounded the Sox to within reach of the American League lead. Top contender in the RBI column, Junior is also right up there in the homer department.

Durocher And His New Giants Blast The Bums, 13 to 4

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer
Lippy Leo Durocher rode triumphantly into the Polo Grounds today in his home debut as manager of the New York Giants with all the pomp and glory of a conquering hero.

No matter what Durocher does from now on, Giant followers will never forget what he did last night. Neither will the Flatbush faithful. In a setting knee deep in drama, the former pilot of the old stamping grounds last night and watched his Giants club his former hirelings into almost total submission. The New Yorkers massacred their inter-borough rivals, 13-4.

It was sweet revenge for Giant fans who had seen their favorites humbled 32 times in 39 clashes at Ebbets field over the last four years. It also was sweet revenge for Durocher, who was shipped across the river to the Giants only ten days ago.

In all the Giants collected 17 base hits against five Dodger pitchers.

Durocher took an unmerciful boogie before the start of the game. Rarely has a manager or player been forced to accept such a shower of verbal abuse. It started the minute he poked his head out of the Giant dugout and lasted until the game got under way.

Cries of "kill the quitter" and "send the bum back to New York" were hurled at him.

The partial Dodger crowd of 33,932, all that could get into the park, didn't know it then, but that was the last chance it had to jeer Durocher and the Giants. Once the game got underway, it was Leo who had the laugh.

The Giants opened up on starter Preacher Roe as if he was the instigator of the boogie. Before the game was ten minutes old, Roe was en route to the showers and the Giants had a 5-0 first inning lead on six hits.

DAVIDSON DIES

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—Homer Davidson, old-time athlete who retired from sports 35 years ago and became a successful businessman, died at his home here yesterday at the age of 63. He was one of the country's first professional football players. From 1903 to 1913 he was a member of the Massillon, Shelby and Akron teams in Ohio.

All track meets in Australia are run on grass.

BY JIM WARD

Off the cuff: The Upper Peninsula sports spotlight is turned on Escanaba this week. The official U. P. women's golf tournament opened today, and next Saturday the annual U. P. open tennis tournament will get underway here. Iron Mountain, Ironwood, Menominee North Shore, Ishpeming, Marquette, Gladstone, Highland and Escanaba are represented in the U. P. women's meet—a rather disappointing entry list of 50. Whatever happened to Iron River, Sault Ste. Marie, Crystal Falls, Calumet, Menominee Riverside, Ontonagon and Ashland, Wis.? They are members of the association but somewhat conspicuous by their absence. Certainly the official association championship tournament warrants better support than a small entry representing only half of the member clubs.

Somewhat similar difficulty is being met in rounding up Upper Peninsula-wide support for the U. P. open meet. Only the Ironwood and Marquette tennis groups have come through in large numbers. And Escanaba tennis players should hang their heads in shame. Only two Escanaba entries to date, Warren Johnston in the junior boys' singles and Mary Ann Yetter in the senior girls singles. How about making use of the entry blank on this page and stuffing George Grenholm's mail box!

Two brother teams are entered in the U. P. tennis meet. Leonard and Bob Brumm of Marquette and Jim and Fred Albert of Ironwood. Young Billy Brumm is entered in the junior boys' singles. Bernard Reynolds of Marquette is the older brother of Bob Reynolds, member of the Escanaba Hawks hockey team. Vince Olson, football, basketball and tennis coach of Concordia Junior college, Bronxville, N. Y., is a darkhorse entry. He's vacationing with relatives in Bark River. Olson, incidentally, was entered in the U. P. net meet here last summer but had to leave unexpectedly so he didn't get a chance to pit his wares against the Mikuliches and Borchers.

Jim Rouman, Escanaba trout fishing expert extra ordinaire, was bemoaning the dry streams while en route to Ishpeming for an inter-club golf match. The matches were rained out. Gladstone graciously permitted Escanaba use of its course for its regular twilight league matches because of the U. P. women's golf tourney on the Escanaba course. That's being right neighborly!

New York critics are panning the movie based on the life of Babe Ruth as being over-sentimentalized. The typical Hollywood tear-jerker treatment, no doubt. Wouldn't just Babe Ruth's colorful life alone be good enough for an enjoyable biographical movie?

Other baseball notes: Pressure is being applied to the Detroit Tiger management by a religious group in Detroit to change the brewery sponsorship of its daily baseball broadcasts. The brewery's option expires at the end of this season. Major league attendance records are soaring, seven per cent ahead of last year.

Stranahan Serious About Ohio Tourney

Toledo, O., July 27 (AP)—Frankie Stranahan, Toledo's British and Canadian amateur champion, seems a bit serious about adding the Ohio open title to his list of golf crowns.

Stranahan was deadlocked for the lead as a field of 163, including 74 Simon-Pures, wheeled into today's second round over Sylvania's rugged course.

The Toledo hot-shot pared two strokes off par yesterday with a scintillating 70 to Ted Hoge, 43-year-old Clevelandan, and Johnny Malutic, an unattached veteran from Youngstown.

But dissatisfied with some of

Fast Field Assured; Thursday Last Day To Get Entries In

Approximately 20 singles and 20 doubles contestants, representing the top tennis talent in the Upper Peninsula, will compete at Escanaba's Ludington Park courts in the second annual U. P. open tennis tournament Saturday and Sunday. The net classic was inaugurated as a Hiawathaland Festival feature last summer.

Under the sponsorship of the Escanaba recreation department, competitors will battle it out for prizes in the junior boys and girls singles, senior boys and girls singles, senior men's and women's singles and corresponding doubles events. Attractive merchandise prizes will be awarded in each class.

Entries already have been received from Ironwood, Marquette and other U. P. communities, from vacationing tennis stars in this area and others are expected from Iron Mountain and other U. P. tennis centers.

The tournament will open Saturday in all classes and will be concluded with championship events in all classes Sunday afternoon and evening.

Persons planning to enter who have not yet filed their entry blanks may use the blank printed elsewhere on this page. It must be received by the city recreation department or the sports department of the Escanaba Daily Press not later than Thursday.

Drawings will be held Thursday night and pairings will be published in the Friday afternoon edition.

Among the outstanding competitors entered are Fred Albert, Ironwood's sensational young star who won the U. P. tennis title in Class B four years in a row; Leonard "Oakie" Brumm, Marquette stalwart; Jim Albert, another Ironwood star, and Vince Olson, of Bronxville, N. Y., tennis coach at Concordia Junior college in Bronxville, who is vacationing with relatives at Route 1, Bark River.

An early men's doubles entry was Bernard Reynolds and Paul St. Cyr, of Marquette. The Brumm brothers of Marquette also are entered.

his iron shots in the round which produced 16 pars and two birdies. Stranahan went straight to the practice tee after his round and was still there when darkness fell.

In Memoriam

In sad and loving memory of our beloved mother and grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Teller, who passed away one year ago today, July 27, 1947.

One year of silent sorrow,
One year of grief and pain,
Our hearts are sad and lonely,
Since you went away.
You left us so very quickly,
God called you and you had to go,
You could not even say goodbye,
And dear, we miss you so.
We often sit and think of you,
And talk of how you died.
Friends may think we have forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
We miss you here, we miss you there,
Your loving smile, your loving face,
And when we sit and think of you,
For all of us you did our best,
God grant you eternal rest.

Sadly missed by
Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Blixt,
Miss Donna Mae Blixt,
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zarling,
Mrs. Sam Wheeler,
Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hart.

Blood Bank Fails In Meeting Quota

To noon today only 46 Delta county persons had donated blood to the Red Cross blood bank, indicating that the county's quota of 280 donors would not be reached before the clinic closes tomorrow afternoon.

It was reported that a total of 34 donors gave blood yesterday and only 12 this morning.

Final pleas were being made today by the Red Cross to induce additional persons to donate to the blood bank, so that a supply will be available in Delta county without drawing on the reserve from other counties.

Donors are asked to report to the clinic in the Junior high school gymnasium tomorrow, the final day, between the hours of 9 and 10:30 a. m., and 1 to 2:30 p. m.

Bandit In Detroit Hospital Begg Wife To Give Herself Up

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—While Ohio authorities continued their hunt today for fugitive Harry McGuire, 37, and his pretty blond companion, Mrs. Jean Bayken, the woman's recaptured husband begged her to give herself up.

Back in the receiving hospital ward he fled Sunday with McGuire, Julius Bayken, 35, described his 25-year-old wife as a "good, innocent kid who's going to have a baby."

"This McGuire is a hard character and she shouldn't be around him," Lt. Walter Wyrod of the holdup squad said Bayken told him.

Mrs. Bayken reportedly helped her husband and his companion escape by smuggling them a gun and keeping a taxicab waiting outside the hospital while they made their getaway.

A few hours later Bayken, whose leg had been broken and wounded when he held up a drugstore several months ago, was recaptured in Toledo.

Police found him lying beside a hedge. He said his wife and McGuire had helped him out of the cab because his leg was giving him so much pain. They fled when officers approached the spot.

Bayken was returned here by ambulance yesterday.

Guns and Footprints Only Clues In Gang Slaying of Shelton

Peoria, Ill., July 27 (AP)—A deer rifle, a cartridge case and some blurred footprints were the only clues today to the slaying of Bernie Shelton.

Shelton, 50, member of a prohibition era family gang which once dominated several Southern Illinois counties, was dispatched yesterday with a single bullet fired from ambush.

The shooting occurred about midday in front of a tavern about two blocks west of the Peoria city limits. Shelton was about to enter his parked car when the slug ripped through his chest.

Sheriff's deputies combed the cover near the tavern. In a clump of shrubbery about 100 feet from where Shelton fell, they found a .351 caliber cartridge shell. A few feet farther away, one picked up a high powered rifle of the same caliber. Footprints led to a nearby cemetery and were lost track of there.

CRUSHED UNDER CAR
Petoskey (AP)—Alton Howden, 29, died Monday in Little Traverse hospital of injuries suffered a day earlier when a car he was repairing slipped off the blocks supporting it, pinning him under the engine.

Dudley Jewell Resigns As C. Of C. Secretary

Dudley Jewell, secretary of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce since Feb. 1, 1947, today submitted his resignation to accept a similar position with the Michigan City, Ind., Chamber of Commerce.

Jewell described his acceptance of the position at Michigan City as "an opportunity which I cannot in fairness refuse." His formal resignation at Escanaba was addressed in a letter to Denis McGinn, Chamber of Commerce president.

The retiring secretary said that he wished to make his resignation effective Aug. 31, if it meets with the pleasure of Chamber's board of directors.

Expressing regret at the coming departure from Escanaba, Jewell said that he appreciated the friendliness and helpfulness of the people of Escanaba and the Chamber of Commerce office staff during his period of service as secretary. The board of directors in meeting today accepted the resignation.

Jewell came to Escanaba from New Albany, Ind., where he was Chamber of Commerce secretary for two years. Prior to that he was employed in Terre Haute, Ind., following his graduation with a bachelor of arts degree from Gonzaga university. He is a native of Spokane, Wash.

Curran Reelected By Maritime Union; Left-Wingers Lose

New York, July 27 (AP)—Joseph Curran has been reelected president of the National Maritime Union (CIO) by a vote of almost three-to-one, and three top-ranking officials linked with the left-wing, anti-Curran faction have been defeated by big margins.

The extent of the right-wing victory—apparent for some time as the counting of ballots progressed—was announced officially last night.

Pro-Curran candidates were returned to office by large majorities.

Curran beat Frederick N. (Blackie) Myers, former NMU vice-president by a vote of 28,043 to 9,640 for the presidency.

Secretary Ferdinand C. Smith, a Negro facing deportation proceedings on a government charge that he is an alien Communist, was defeated for reelection.

Vice-presidents Chester Young and Howard McKenzie also were among those beaten.

Wayward Minister May Give Up Girl, Return To Family

Atlanta, July 27 (AP)—A middle-aged Baptist minister, accused of adultery and fornication, hoped today for a reconciliation with the wife he left in South Carolina.

The Rev. D. A. Martin, 45, and Miss Lois Chandler were bound over to Fulton county criminal court yesterday in a tear-filled preliminary hearing after city detectives said the two had lived together as man and wife since March, 1947.

Miss Chandler, 27, shapely and red-haired, once studied missionary work with Martin during the 20 years he served as pastor in a Baptist church in Greenville, S. C.

Present at the preliminary hearing were Martin's wife and his son, W. T. Martin, a husky, 22-year-old Furman university football player. There is also an 18-year-old daughter.

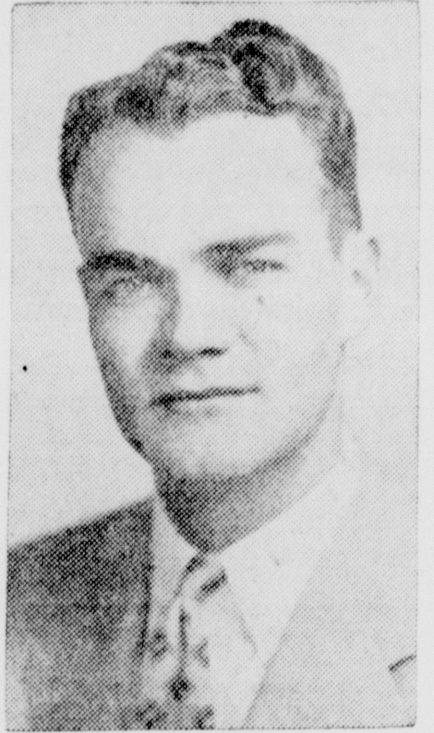

In a tense court room scene, Mrs. Martin rose weeping from the audience and told Judge Frank White:

"This girl has been going after him for two years. He was a fine man and a fine preacher until she ruined him. All I ever ask is for her to leave him alone and him to stay at home."

President Asks Powers To Curb Cost Of Living

Leaders made clear that Mr. Truman could pin no real hope for action on more than one or two minor points in his message.

The chief executive hit hardest at the rising cost of living. But he led off by saying that another crying need is for more and cheaper housing.

So he called again for passage of the Taft-Elliender-Wagner bill to meet the "acute" housing shortage.

"This is the bill we need," he said. "We need it now, not a year from now."

Credit Controls Wanted
In addition to selective wage controls and a return to the wartime excess profits tax at a rate he did not disclose, the president asked Congress to:

1. Restore consumer credit controls—such as those which specified down payments and the time in which installment purchases had to be paid off.

2. Arm the federal reserve board with more power to regulate "inflationary bank credit."

3. Grant him power to regulate speculation on the commodity exchanges.

4. Grant him power to impose allocation and inventory control over "scarce commodities which basically affect essential production or the cost of living," the same term he used for his price control proposal.

5. Strengthen controls over rent with adequate appropriations for enforcement to prevent "further unwarranted rent increases."

6. Give him standby power to ration "those few products in short supply which vitally affect the health and welfare." He said that unless further shortages occur, this authority "might not have to be used at all."

The president asked authority to limit wage increases only where they would "force a break in a price ceiling." Even in this instance an exception would be made if the increases were "essential to remedy hardship, to correct inequities or to prevent an actual lowering of living standards."

Williams Picks Up Where He Left Off

Chicago, July 27 (AP)—After being benched for a week with a side injury, Boston's Ted Williams has picked up where he left off—pacing the American league batters.

The Beantown belter, eyeing the 400 mark, slammed six hits in 13 trips last week to up his leading batting clip by three points to .391. Lou Boudreau of Cleveland tapped nine blows in 32 AB's to drop seven points to .352. Third place was snared by Detroit's George Kell who moved up from fourth with a 10 point increase to .342.

Young Mother Held With Boy Friend In Torture-Murder

Detroit, July 27 (AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Lari, attractive young mother, and her boy friend, Ralph Roy Hunter, 24, were held for trial today on first degree murder charges.

They are accused with James Sacchetti of the torture-slaying June 12 of Elmer B. Jones, 72-year-old retired contractor. Sacchetti still is at large.

Recorder's Judge W. Mc Kay Skillman ordered Hunter and the 21-year-old girl held for trial after their examination ended.

Read into the record was a purported statement made to police by Mrs. Lari in which she said Jones was tortured and slain in a robbery attempt.

Another witness testified Sacchetti, in recounting the slaying, said Mrs. Lari, baby-faced mother of two small children, ate candy and drank whiskey as she watched Jones being beaten to death.

STEEL KILLS TRUCKER

Detroit (AP)—Roger A. Levillier, 28-year-old truck driver, was crushed to death Monday when a ton of rolled steel broke loose and struck him down while he was on a routine stop at the U. S. Sales Co. plant here. Francis Willett, 32, an employee of the company, suffered a fractured leg and internal injuries.

proposals but that only one has been approved. That lone measure was for settling the wartime evacuation claims of Japanese-Americans.

Of the others he said: "I believe that it is necessary to enact the laws I have recommended in order to make the guarantees of the constitution real and vital." These are the others:

"1. Establishing a permanent commission on civil rights, a joint congressional committee on civil rights and a civil rights division in the department of justice.

"2. Strengthening existing civil rights statutes.

"3. Providing federal protection against lynching.

"4. Insuring that the right to vote in elections for federal offices shall not be contingent upon the payment of taxes.

"5. Establishing a Fair Employment Practice Commission to prevent unfair discrimination in employment.

"6. Prohibiting discrimination in interstate transportation facilities.

"7. Providing home-rule and suffrage in presidential elections for the residents of the District of Columbia.

"8. Providing statehood for Hawaii and Alaska and a greater measure of self-government for our island possessions.

"9. Equalizing the opportunities for residents in the United States to become naturalized citizens."

Thus the chief executive and rebellious Dixie Democrats faced each other across even more sharply drawn battlelines.
